

Boy Scouts honor Perkasio law firm

The law firm of Grim, Biehn and Thatcher has received the 2007 Distinguished Community Service Award from the Tohpendal District, Bucks County Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Several attorneys of the firm were recognized at an awards dinner held at Revivals Restaurant, Perkasio, with approximately 70 local business people in attendance.

County Commissioner James Cawley commended the firm and the work of the Boy Scouts. The featured speaker was Mike Pettine, former Central Bucks West football coach.

Attorney Wallace Bateman received the Silver Beaver Award and medal, which is the highest honor for individual service to scouting. Attorney Daniel J. Paci is a former Silver Beaver recipient and past president of the Bucks County Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Attorneys J. Lawrence Grim, Stephen P. Moyer and Gregory E. Grim have also been and remain strong supporters of scouting.

From left are Colby Grim, Jeffrey Trauger, Stephen Moyer, David Caro, Dianne Magee, Wallace "Skip" Bateman, Daniel Paci and Gregory Grim of the law firm Grim, Biehn and Thatcher. The firm was honored by the Tohpendal District, Bucks County Council of the Boy Scouts of America.