

BUSINESS

Lawyers Bateman, Trauger inducted as Charter Fellows

Attorneys Wallace (Skip) H. Bateman Jr. and Jeffrey G. Trauger of the law firm of Grim, Biehn & Thatcher have been inducted as Charter Fellows into the Litigation Counsel of America at the LCA's Spring Conference and Induction of Fellows in New York City.

Bateman, a graduate of LaSalle University, cum laude and Widener University School of Law, has practiced law for more than 20 years and concentrates his practice in criminal and civil litigation.

Trauger, a graduate of Brown University and Temple University Law School, cum laude, has practiced law for more than 18 years. He concentrates his practice in commercial and business litigation.

The Litigation Counsel of America is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers.

Fellows are selected based upon effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation.

Grim Biehn & Thatcher has offices in Perkasic, Quakertown and Doylestown. For more information, visit grimlaw.com.

People in the News

